could tell the difference between the g and the Triomphe de Gand. Lyman thought there was a difference on the two kinds were grown side by side the strawberry business: these who raised the sand grew strawberry plants for sale, and it rew strawberries for market. The grower of plants which he could sell at $5 a dozen. The or as pouch larger and research the strawberries for market. int which he could seil at $5 n dozen. The other much larger, and were the growers of straw, r market. It was a matter of the greatest im-to this class to have the best varieties, not for a ar, but varieties that would be profitable for a of years. The speaker preferred the "Wilson," lought most cultivators would. After that my ce would be the Triomphe de Gand. Though in is not, strictly speaking, a first-class berry, it Wilson is not, strictly speaking, a first class berry, it bear more neglect than any other. In this respect is like the Concord grape. The Triomphe Gand succeeds better in a heavy clay but it is not as sine as the Wilson, y often when the Wilson sold for 15 or 20 cents a quart other brought 40 cents a quart. It was of great incance to consider the capabilities of a berry to bear asportation to market. Strawberries had been oversefor the last three years, and in many sections had been as profitable as raising corn and potatoes. The taker warned enthusiastic agriculturists against using people to leave profitable employment in the to make fortunes by raising fruits. He considered divising people to leave problable employment in the type of the problable of the problable of the carried to the extent it was smellines. He would not, however, discourage menon engaging in the business of raising small fruits if may had a taste for the business, and a love for country fe so much that they were willing to look after their orde early and late.

In answer to a question from Mr. Fuller, as to what he candid he a remunerative price for strawberries, Dr.

ded as a remanerative price for strawberries, Dr. cliner said berries could not be profitably grown as than is cents a quart. Fruit growers in this vishould not rely on the New York market alone. Sr. Cavanagh, H. T. Williams, and others, engaged discussion. On motion of Mr. Whitlock, the Club named to hold an extra meeting on Monday next. Frieck.

ition of strawberries is quite extensive for The exhibition of atrawberines is dute exhibition the first week, their being over 100 varieties on the fable. Among these, the "Beyden's No. 30," "Agriculturist," and the "Triomphe de Gand," take the lead, the largest berries being among the "Agriculturists." A very beautiful addition to the exhibition consists of a table containing 78 varieties of roses, from the garden of Mr. War. A Burgess of Long Island.

THE KINSMAN WILL.

Surrogate's Court—Before Surrogate Tucker.

—In the contest over the will of Mr. Kinsman, reported yesterday in The Triniung, farther testimony was taken. In. Nell was further cross-examined as to the condition of the mind of Mr. Kinsman, and an intimation was thrown out that Neil's testimony was affected by the fact that Kinsman in his latter days had conveyed property to him. J. O. Brown, the attorney who drew, and one of the attorney's who nitested the will, was the next witness, and his opinion was strong as to Mr. Kinsman's clear-beadedness and firmness. He had known the deceased to years. Some testimony was taken as to a previous will, and the Court adjourned. THE KINSMAN WILL.

John M. Seeberger agt. Frederick Wm. Bunk.—
Soperior Court, Trust Term, Bartbour, Justice.—The plaintiff's daughter, it is charged, was seduced by the defendant, and her father brought suit against him. The defendant falled to appear, and an inquest was taken. From the uncontradicted testimony, it appeared that the defendant had been paying attentions to the young lady, when one evening, in a dark hallway, he applied a hand-kerchiet to her face, and when she awoke she found herself abne and outraged. The defendant promised marriage and procured an abortion. The jury found the full smount claimed.

New-York Central sold at 189: Hudson, 157; Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 105h; North-Western Common, 834; North Western Preferred, 964; Rock Island, 119; New-Jersey Central, 112. Prices were not maintained at the Board, and after the call were lower. New-York Central sold at 1872; Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 1644; North-Western Common, 824; North-Western Preferred, 96; Rock Island, 118; Illinois Central sold at 144; St. Paul Common, 74; 274; St. Paul Preferred, 854@85‡; Fort Wayne, 155‡; Hanmbal and St. Joseph Preferred, 121. Between the calls the market was dull and without spirit. At second call the market was without interest, prices remaining firm. After the Board New-Jersey Central declined to 107, a fell of 3 per cent; Fort Wayne declined 3 per cent; New-York Central, 11 per cent. This break unsettled the market, and the balance of the Western list was from $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent lower. The dealings became more active at the decline, with large transactions in Michigan Southern, Rock Island, and the North-Western shares. At the close the market was dull and unsettled.

The Cincumati Gazette of Wednesday says:

The stringency in the money market to-day was even more severe than yesterday, and nearly all the banks suffered a further depletion in means. Further checks to a large amount in favor of the Sub-Treasury had to be be bead. Such a constant and heavy drain upon our banks, at a time when money is unusually light, is certainly ill-advised. The withdrawal of the Government tainly ill-advised.

Interest S Per Cent. per Annum, Payable May and November, in the City of New-York ; Principal Payable in 1885.

These Bonds, which have been placed in our hands for negotiation by the Company issuing them, we regard as a first-class scentity. They are a first lien upon the road and its equipment. The total issue is limited to $1,200,000, on a road of 164 miles in length, which is but $7,622 per mile. The road is a trunk line running from Montgomery, the capital of Alabama, to Tenass, 23 miles from Mobile, with which it connects by steamboats The road has been in operation for years, and has demonstrated its capacity to do a profitable business. That business will be much enlarged on the completion of the New-Orleans and Mobile Railroad, now in the tourse of rapid construction. It is the intention of the Company to sell sufficient of these Bonds to pay its floating debt, and to place the road and equipment in first-rate condition, retaining the balance in its possession to meet fature contin-These Bonds are offered for the present at 85 per cent and accrued in
